Learn how to establish an authoritative presence in event planning that will lead to great success

| Thierry Laforest, Dr h. c.

To achieve such a level of success, you need to adopt a charismatically super positioning. And, there are only three steps! Are you ready? Well ! Let us begin by closing eyes :

The first step : it involves focusing on the intention or message you want to convey to your target audience. It can be something very simple. For example, I would say: « My name is Thierry, and I want to connect with numberless people who use manual razors for daily shave. »

That may be my intention. However, you may have a more ambitious intention. If I were launching a new product, I would say: « My goal is to connect with everyone in my target market country, introduce them to this product, and encourage them to try it out in my presence. »

Once you have set your intention as a message, you need to connect with your target people somehow. Do not be anxious; I will tell you a smart trick to help you do that. Once you get connected, make sure to deliver your message.

The first step is to focus on yourself. To do so, imagine bringing your energy (or attention) around your body. You can practice this step right now. Bring your energy back and feel it around you.

The second step : This involves connecting yourself. It is quite a fun! You are going to expand yourself to the size of your target audience.

To do so, simply expand your field of action (or awareness) to the size of your target audience. For example, if you are targeting an audience the size of a football stadium, simply imagine yourself at the top of the stadium. This gives you a 360-degree view. You can see everyone of your target.

You can also do this for an entire country. For instance, you could imagine yourself above the country on a map. The same principle applies to the entire planet. Yes, you read that right!

The third step : Once you get there, open your eyes and deliver your message. Imagine sending a message to everyone in your target audience from the top of your head (the location of your crown chakra).

When you close your eyes again, you will see the people who are enlightened. You will then see small lights turning on within your target audience. Once you have finished, open your eyes wide. After three sessions with the same intention, let the universe do its work !!

Notice : You now have a quantum tool in your hand that can only be used for good.
